

Last week the inlet committee and a representative from CHA surveyed the inlet to determine depths.

Good news! Last years dredging of the inlet using the recently purchased DIno 6 was vey successful. Depths across the length and width of the Inlet are at least 6 feet.

We found no low spots or hills. Based on the survey results no additional dredging will be required this year.