

The CHA lawyer was contacted approximately 2 months ago concerning this issue. As of this date, we have not received a response. After a lengthy and thorough review by the Board of Directors on Tuesday, March 12th, a vote was made to remove John Collins from the election ballot per Colington Covenants Article 3, Section 1. This was most definitely not an easy decision however, the BOD's duties are to our homeowners of this amazing community while following the guidelines set forth for membership in our governing documents.
